

Radiological Education, Monitoring, and Outreach Project (REMOP)
Savannah River Ecology Laboratory
University of Georgia

Community Advisory Council (CAC) Agenda
13-07-2017

This is the agenda for the first CAC meeting on 13th July 2017 in Waynesboro, GA.

1. Introduction to REMOP (Megan, Gene & Becky)
 - a. Introductions of project participants and roles (Megan)
 - i. UGA SREL
 - ii. Georgia WAND
 - b. History, Structure & goals of the project (Gene & Becky)
 - i. Past History of Shell Bluff area advocacy
 - ii. CAB Recommendation 317
 - iii. Proposed Structure
 - iv. Goals
 1. Increase understanding of monitoring programs
 2. Increase understanding of data resulting from monitoring programs
2. Roles & Responsibilities of the CAC (Gene, Becky, & Megan)
 - a. Initial CAC Feedback on Project Sampling (Gene & Becky)
 - i. Sampling Media Selection
 - ii. Sampling Location Strategy
 - iii. Placement of Air Monitoring Station
 - b. Monthly content review (2-4 hours/month; Megan)
 - i. Purpose: make sure that CAC has opportunity to provide input on content relevance, importance, and delivery
 - ii. Receive monthly content, review it, send back to Megan
 - c. Meetings, every other month (2 hours; Megan)
 - i. Receive REMOP updates
 - ii. Provide in-person review of REMOP activities (schedule of events, content, etc.)
 - iii. Provide access to network for presentations to community groups
 - iv. Address any issues arisen by community members or REMOP team
 - d. Proposed structure (Megan)
 - i. Multiple options – up the group to decide
 1. Structured, with leadership roles defined
 2. No defined leadership roles, open forum setting
3. General Questions & Answers Session